7. Check your mailbox to confirm your email in Ariba
   - Once you register your company you will receive an email asking to confirm your account. If you have more than one email address you can add it in here.

8. Click Go to my Company Profile
   - The page contains the next steps to complete the profile, it’s required to have 100% of the profile complete in order to transact with CBI.
Once you are registered, the Dashboard will include key ongoing management capabilities. You are now transacting with CBI and can return to the previous email to confirm the PO.
